THE 10 'CALL FOR PAPERS' RULES

1. The authors of the selected abstracts will be consequently asked to send their final papers too, which will be included in the Congress proceedings.

2. Final papers must be drafted in one of the five official OIV languages: English, French, German, Italian or Spanish.

3. All accepted communications (oral, short and poster) will be published in the compilation of communications distributed during the Congress.

4. Only communications selected as oral and short will be eligible to be published in Web of Conferences (by EDP Sciences) on the platform dedicated to OIV Congresses.

5. The authors who wish to publish their papers in Bio Web of Conferences www.bio-conferences.org must:
   - Write their final paper in English or in French, German, Italian or Spanish. For these articles, authors must include English title and English abstract after those in original language
   - Draft their final papers according the provided template;
   - Upload their final papers in a Word document format,
   - Upload a completed, signed and scanned Licence Agreement form, on the platform of the Congress - http://www.oiv.int/congres/OIV2019CHE/login .

6. Any oral and short communication which will not presented during the Congress will not be published in the Open access journal Bio Web of Conferences www.bio-conferences.org.

7. The title of the paper in the Licence Agreement must be identical to that in the uploaded paper.

8. Authors should make sure that the final paper is ready for publishing before uploading it. Any further modifications are possible only until the deadline, after which the platform will be closed.

9. Only the names of authors and co-authors introduced directly on the platform will appear in Congress proceedings.

10. It is strongly recommended to upload final papers well before the deadline.